Oscar Wilde's

The Picture of Dorian Gray

Returning to Bewleys by popular demand as Dinner Theatre this September.

Experience Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray in one evening as this hit show returns to Bewleys of Grafton St, following a sell out run and national tour as part of Dublin One City One Book

Decadent Victorian London: The socialite Lord Henry seduces the beautifully boyish Dorian Gray, into a double life of pleasure, murder and excess. Unlike Lord Henry, Dorian never ages - only Basil Hallward's portrait charts his decline into sin and ultimate self-destruction.

Indulge in a delicious dinner and Wildean wit, when the text of this Gothic masterpiece is narrated and staged for you by Basil, Lord Henry, and Dorian - actors Michael James Ford, Simon Coury and Michael Winder and directed by Alice Coghlan.

All tickets include a delicious dinner, dessert and coffee.

"An exquisite adaptation" The Sunday Times

★★★★ "Winder is perfectly cast as lord snooty Dorian" Metro Herald

"A fascinating, civilised night at the theatre." Irish Theatre Magazine

"An invigorating, luxurious piece of drama" Totally Dublin

"Prepare to be enthralled by this." Dublin City FM
